MLA Releases Strategic Plan

The MLA Executive Council and staff, in consultation with members and constituents, have developed a set of strategic priorities to guide the association's future. This plan aims to attract a diverse membership, represent members' interests and needs, and foster public support for the study and teaching of language, literature, writing, media, and culture. We encourage you to read the plan online and to share comments or suggestions by e-mailing strategicplan@mla.org.
