Convention Daily

The Convention Daily prints special notices, changes in schedule, and brief reports on convention activities and appears Thursday, Friday, and Saturday during the convention. Copies are available free at the MLA registration and welcome center and other locations; the 5 January issue will appear on the MLA Web site before the convention.

MLA Convention App

Download the app for the 2017 convention to create your own convention schedule and have easy access to session information, maps, and other convention details.

Program Online

A searchable program for the convention is available online (www.mla.org/program).

New Graduate Student Volunteer Program

Keep an eye out for graduate student volunteers, who are serving as welcome ambassadors for the convention. They're available to help you locate meeting rooms, provide session information, and answer questions about local attractions and restaurants.

Rosemary G. Feal's Farewell Convention

The 2017 convention marks Rosemary G. Feal's last year as the executive director of the MLA. Join us to wish her well and share memories at the opening night reception on 5 January, 10:00 p.m.–12:00 midnight, Petite Ballroom, Ritz-Carlton, 10 Avenue of the Arts.

Paving the Way

The MLA has launched a campaign to raise funds for programs that strengthen the humanities and address academic workforce issues. The campaign, Paving the Way: For the Future of the Humanities, will support convention travel grants, internships, departmental consultancies, research on the academic workforce, and political lobbying. Go to www.mla.org/Donate to contribute to these programs.

T-Shirts for Sale

Buy an MLA T-shirt and show your support for workforce equity and the humanities! Two styles are available, and all proceeds will go to the Paving the Way campaign. T-shirts are on sale for $20 at MLA PubCentral and at the registration and welcome center.

Twitter

Follow @MLAconvention, @MLACommons, @MLANews, and @MLAConnect for updates throughout the convention and tweet sessions using #mla17 and the session hashtag (e.g., #S422).

Wi-Fi Access

The MLA is providing free wireless Internet access in the meeting rooms and public areas of the PCC and Philadelphia Marriott. Follow these instructions to connect (connectivity is not guaranteed):

PCC. Select MLA2017 and enter password MLA2017Philly.

Philadelphia Marriott. In meeting rooms, connect to Marriott_Conference, open any Internet browser, and go to cnn.com to reach the Marriott Access Code page. Enter passcode MLA2017 and click Connect. Reconnection is required each day. In the lobby, select Marriott Lobby, open a Web page, redirect to the Marriott splash page, and select Connect for Free.

What to Do in a Weather or Other Emergency

If weather or an emergency in Philadelphia should delay or otherwise affect the scheduling of convention sessions, full information on such changes will be posted on the MLA Web site (www.mla.org/mla-2017). If a local or personal emergency should cause you to have to delay or cancel your attendance at the convention, you should contact your hotel and airline carrier as early as possible. Requests for registration refunds must be post-marked by 6 January. Visit www.mla.org/Registration-Hotels for more information. If you are scheduled to speak or participate in a session, please notify the session organizer. You may also want to annotate your session listing in the online Program.

Remember to wear your badge.

Policies

Audio- and Videotaping at Sessions

Neither audiotaping nor videotaping of sessions is normally permitted. Occasional exceptions may be made for members of the media taping short segments designed to convey the convention atmosphere. Such arrangements must be made through the press office and require the consent of all speakers at a session. When taping is approved, a representative of the media staff will accompany the reporter and crew. The session organizer will announce to the audience that audio- or videotaping will take place during a part of the session. Only background taping is allowed, not the taping of an entire session. Requests to film the convention as part of a creative or documentary project must have been submitted to the Executive Council by 14 October.

Badges

Badges are required for admission to convention sessions, the exhibit hall, and the Job Information Center. Badge holders are available at the MLA registration and welcome center, in the PCC. Lost badges can be replaced for $15.

Canceling Sessions

MLA sessions should only be canceled if nearly all the participants are unable to attend the convention. In such a situation, please contact the MLA headquarters office in the Philadelphia Marriott immediately (updates2017@mla.org; 215 409-4012) so that convention attendees can be informed of the cancellation. Organizers should also inform all the session participants of the cancellation.

Fragrance

The Committee on Disability Issues in the Profession reminds attendees that refraining from using scented products will help ensure the comfort of everyone at the convention.

Guest Passes to the Exhibit Hall

MLA convention registrants may obtain free passes to the exhibit hall for guests they accompany in the hall. Persons who are not registered for the convention and who are not accompanied by registrants may purchase a one-day pass to the exhibit hall for $10. These passes are available at the exhibitor information booth (PCC, Ballroom AB, Ballroom level).

Guest Passes to Sessions

All MLA members and members of the profession that the MLA serves are required to register in order to participate in or attend sessions.

A convention speaker may obtain a pass for a guest who has no professional interest in language or literature to hear a presentation by that speaker at a single session. The speaker must request the pass at the MLA registration and welcome center on the day of the session, before the center closes. Passes may not be requested by guests of speakers or by MLA members who have not registered for the convention.

Identification

You may need to have a government-issued photo ID when you check in to your hotel. Security personnel may ask to see a hotel room key or may ask that you be accompanied by a hotel guest with a room key.

Reading in Absentia

To encourage discussion and dialogue among panelists and attendees at convention sessions, reading in absentia (whether by Skype, videoconferencing, audio delivery, or presentation by surrogates) is not normally permitted. Presenters who are unable to attend the convention because of unforeseen emergencies are reminded that they may include a link to their papers in the online Program.

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited in most public places in Philadelphia.

On-Site Resources

Business Centers

PCC, FedEx Office, level 2, 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

Philadelphia Marriott, FedEx Office Business Center, lobby level, open 24-7 for print and copy services; for other services, open 5–6 January, 7:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m.; 7 January, 8:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.; and 8 January, 12:00 noon–5:00 p.m.

Childcare

MLA members who are registered for the convention and use childcare services provided by one of the convention hotels or another service are eligible for reimbursement. The MLA has funds available to reimburse up to $400 each to registered members who use childcare services during convention hours. If more requests are received than can be reimbursed with available funds, preference will be given to graduate students and members in lower-income categories.

Members should submit a request for reimbursement, along with supporting documentation such as a receipt from a childcare service, no later than 27 January 2017 to Karin Bagnall, Head of Convention Programs, Modern Language Association, 85 Broad Street, suite 500, New York, NY 10004-2434.

Nursing Mothers. Space is available in the Philadelphia Marriott (302, level 3) and in the PCC (Momava Personal Services Pod, level 2) during meeting hours for those who require it.
